Most scenic route - follow the Kerry Way and join the Derrynane Mass Path which ends at the Derrynane pier.

Ahamore Abbey ruins are worth the visit.

To get to Derrynane via the dunes - continue for a short distance along the tarred road and walk down to the parking area just after Keatings Bar (only open in peak season). Head onto the dunes and walk to Derrynane House. Enjoy the magnificent long beach, historic house, dune walk, gardens, forest, and tearoom.

MEAL OPTIONS

1. Have a light meal at Ahamore Tearoom (at Derrynane House) 10-5pm in season and head straight to Thidwick BnB. [soups, paninis, wraps, salads, desserts]

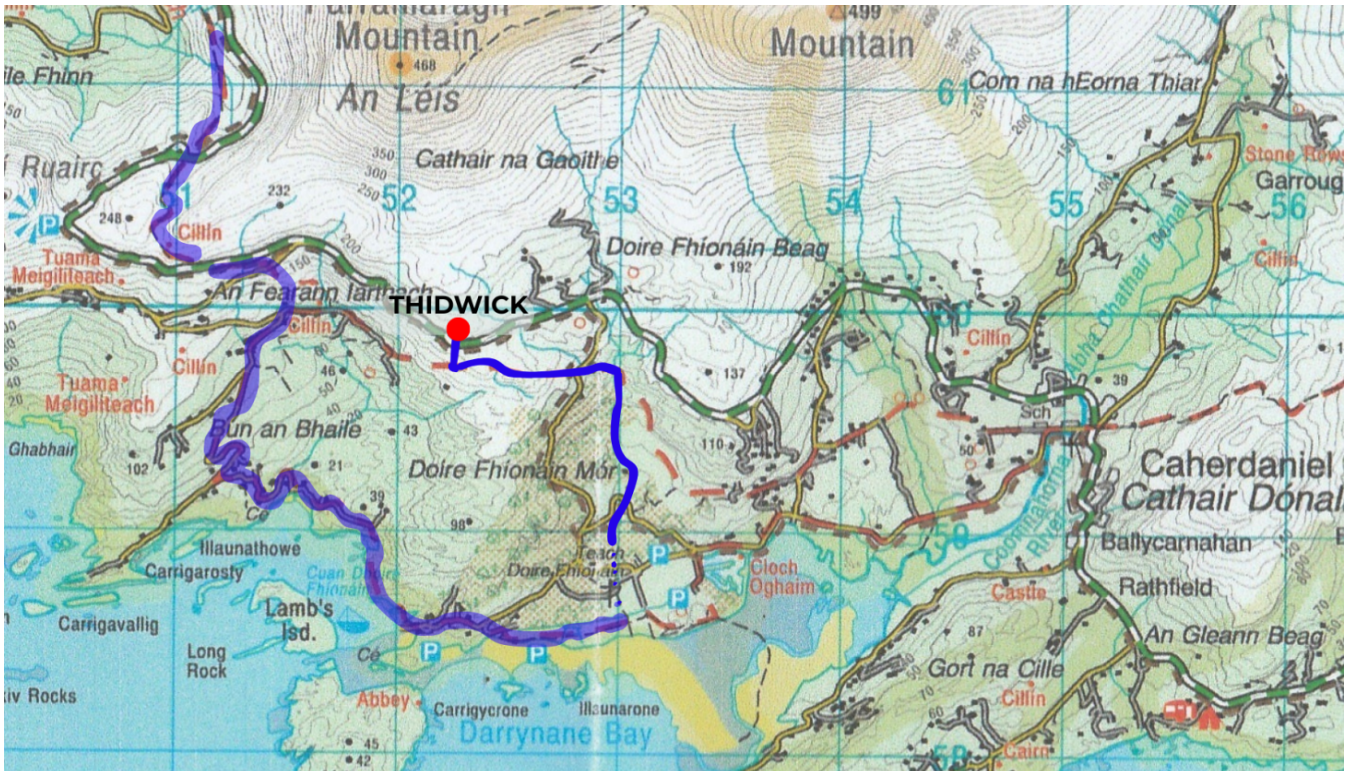

2. Go to the Blind Piper pub.

After your meal, give me a phone call / WhatsApp (after 4pm - not a text) on +353 87 717 3575. I will come and fetch you by car - 5 mins away.

Do not take the main road back to Thidwick - it is suicide. Call me or walk back along the Kerry Way (see notes below).

Several Route Options - see pages 2-3

Derrynane House to Thidwick BnB

From the main parking area at Derrynane House take the MEADOW WALK up the hill following the stream until you reach the Kerry Way (northern route). At the Kerry Way path you turn LEFT - heading towards Waterville. You will come to a tarred road - turn right and a few metres up the hill, you will see another sign for the Kerry Way on your LEFT. Take this path. Along the Kerry Way on a KW post there will be our Thidwick BnB sign leading you up a grassy rough track to a locked gate. Climb over the gate, and then cross the road to our driveway. Watch out for cars coming around the corner – look to your right first.

Derrynane House to the Blind Piper Pub

From the main parking area at Derrynane House take the MEADOW WALK up the hill following the stream until you reach the Kerry Way (northern route).

At the Kerry Way path you turn RIGHT - heading towards Caherdaniel. This will bring you right to the Blind Piper.
